This prohibition is effective immediately upon service. In accordance with Section 206(g)(7)(A) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1786(g)(7)(A), this Order shall constitute a prohibition from further participation in any manner in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution, or other entity identified therein, without the written permission of the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This Order has been issued based upon the following information:

In connection with your plea of guilty, you were placed on probation for ten years, commencing March 8, 2004, thru March 8, 2014. Additionally, you were placed under house arrest with electronic monitoring for one year with authorization to leave the home for work, medical emergencies or scheduled medical treatments. You were also ordered to pay restitution in the amount to $20,000 which is to be paid from your retirement fund net of taxes. Attached and incorporated by reference is a copy of the sentencing order dated March 8, 2004.

federally insured credit union may pose a threat to the interests of credit union members and threaten to impair public confidence in the credit union involved.
