BACKGROUND

Rogers began working at Kern FCU in 1997 as a teller and rose to the position of Senior Member Service Representative. Her primary responsibilities included opening new accounts and handling member inquiries. She was exceptionally good with the senior citizen members. Rogers illegally withdrew funds from several member accounts without authorization. The proceeds were used to benefit herself and her family. Rogers chose only accounts belonging to elderly members who were trusting. To accomplish her scam, she forged a friendly trusting relationships with these elderly citizens over several years. Rogers made unlawful withdrawals in at least 20 different member accounts. Most of the victims were in their 70's with the oldest one being 80 years of age. Because Rogers was a service representative, she was able to divert calls from members that called to complain that funds had been withdrawn.

Rogers may have not acted alone because in at least one instance $700.00 was deposited and subsequently withdrawn into the account of members Vicky Thomas and Gregory Adams. The funds appear to have been unlawfully withdrawn from the account of an 81 year member, Marianne Grant.
