| December 2012 | 1,744 | 6,819 | $25.58 \%$ |

NOTES:

1. Bold red font denotes cycle since NCUA announcement of intention to impose civil money penalties (CMPs). Warning letters were sent to December 2013 late filers. CMPs have been imposed on late filers in subsequent cycles.
2. The "Late Filers" figure from March 2014 onward is the preliminary number sent to the regions/state supervisory authorities (SSAs) for comment. The number actually paying CMPs is lower because cases were dropped based on additional information provided by the regions, SSAs, and late filers.

Assessment Amounts per Cycle

December 2013-March 2015

| Call-Report Cycle | Total Number of  Late Filers | Number of  Assessments | Low  Assessment | High  Assessment | Median  Assessment | Average  Assessment |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| March 2015 | 25 | 15 | $$ 45$ | $$ 943$ | $$ 195$ | $$ 340$ |
| December 2014 | 56 | 28 | $$ 150$ | $$ 6,752$ | $$ 188$ | $$ 488$ |
| September 2014 | 47 | 31 | $$ 138$ | $$ 1,878$ | $$ 176$ | $$ 414$ |

| December 2013* | 304 | N/A | N/A | N/A | N/A | N/A |

Note: Total number of Late Filers is higher than the number of Assessments due to the fact that some CMP's are waived due extenuating circumstance as proved by the credit union to their regional examiner or SSA. Extenuating circumstances are listed as: An "Act of God" such as:

- A natural disaster that impairs operation of the credit union;
- A weather event that impairs operation of the credit union;
- A power failure, internet failure, or failure of the credit union's core-processing system immediately prior to or at the filing deadline;
- The death or physical/emotional incapacitation of a key employee.

Note: An example of physical incapacitation is emergency hospitalization of the CEO/manager just prior to the deadline. An example of emotional incapacitation is the CEO/manager learning about the terminal illness of an immediate family member just prior to the deadline. These explanations are only acceptable only if the credit union is too small to have back-up personnel.

- Turnover of a key position just prior to the deadline.

Note: An example is the unexpected resignation of the CEO/manager of a small credit union just before the filing deadline. This type of explanation is acceptable only if the credit union is too small to have back-up personnel.

- Robbery of a credit union that impairs the credit union's ability to file on time.
- A CU Online filing problem unique to the credit union that is supported by a Help Desk ticket. This ticket must be time/date stamped near, but prior to, the deadline. Note: The Help Desk currently closes at 6 pm on the deadline day; a best practice is completing Call Reports while technical support is available.
- The credit union, SSA, or NCUA accidentally "unsubmits" its Call Report after successfully submitting prior to the deadline.
- A merger with another credit union.
- A liquidation or conservatorship.

| NOTES:  1.Ceiling is $\$ 20,000$ per day. CMPs above $\$ 2,000$ per day are appropriate if failure to file on time is not "inadvertent." The burden to prove "inadvertence" is on the credit union. The final CMP assessment amount will be dependent upon a range of statutory factors, such as good faith by the credit union or other matters as justice may require.  2. CMP indicated in cell applies to all late days. For example, the fine for 7 days late (if not also late previous quarter) is $\$ 150+(0.001 \%$ of assets) $\times 7$ days.  3. State fines for late filing will be netted out of NCUA fines.  4. CMPs will be doubled in penalty letter, with a discount to amount indicated in this matrix if a consent order is signed in 30 days. Minimum penalty should consent order not be signed is $\$ 1,000$. |  |  |  |

NOTES

1. The preliminary civil money penalty (CMP) assessed (i.e., figure in the letter sent to the late filer) depends on the size of the credit union and the number of days the Call Report is late - as specified in the penalty matrix. [The final assessment could be less if the SSA, region, or credit union furnishes information indicating extenuating circumstances.] This table shows how the 2015:Q1 penalty matrix for late filing would be applied to a credit union with $$ 25$ million in assets - the median size of federally insured credit unions
2. "Tiers" - with higher CMPs for missing the deadline by more days - are designed to provide late filers with an incentive to get their Call Reports in as soon as possible.
3. The assessment letter for a late filer includes two figures - a "lower amount" determined by the penalty matrix if the credit union consents to the fine (columns 2 and 3 ) and a "higher amount" if NCUA must litigate (columns 4 and 5). The "higher amount" is the greater of $$ 1,000$ and twice the "lower amount." This mimimum fine with litigation ( $$ 1,000$ ) and the policy of higher/lower fines depending on the need for litigation were recommended by OGC based on their experience with CMPs.
4. If a credit union is a repeat offender, the lower CMP amount determined by the penalty matrix (column 2 ) is doubled.
5. So, for example, the CMP matrix indicates a $$ 25$ million credit union 11 days late filing its Call Report should pay a fine of $$ 5,650$ - provided there is no history of lateness, and a consent order is signed. If the credit union has a history of lateness, it would face of fine of $$ 11,300$ with a consent order. If the credit union had a history of lateness and refuses to sign a consent order, it would face a fine of $$ 22,600$.
6. To date, every late filer facing an assessment has signed a consent order and paid the lower amount.
